

The Influence of

6 PM, Mon., April 9, 2018

on
the

TECH nology Human ities

Goodman Ctr.

149 Waubesa St.

Madison, WI 53704 241-1574

A free, public lecture by Kevin Mirus, Ph.D., Director of MATC STEM

"Humanities in Communities" series continues monthly – 2nd Mondays – September-May. Updates and links at www.uproar21.us

Kevin Mirus on The Influence of Technology on the Humanities

He will review...

- Ways in which science and technology directly influence studies of the humanities and the creative process.
- A brief history of the entwinement of science, technology, and the arts.
- How digital technologies have influenced textual analysis.
- Finally, how artificial intelligence may affect literature and visual art.

KEVIN MIRUS is the director of the STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) Center at Madison College.

He earned a Ph.D. in physics from UW-Madison and has worked in areas from IT consultant to high schools and for mathematics teaching at MATC.

His interest in how art and technology interact was piqued when he co-taught an art class at Marshall High School years ago.

